WORK EXPERIENCE

The Big Phone Store

Front End Developer Intern - Present

As an intern I am constantly learning and adapting to the company's chosen technologies, which as a self-taught developer I am accustomed to as I regularly teach myself new languages and frameworks. I undertake smaller UI tasks set by the developer team, building up my familiarity with their coding environment. Also, as well as my technical duties, I help produce ideas to better our UI and plan design strategy.

Deliveroo Warehouse

Warehouse Worker - 01/2023-11/2023

In this role I was responsible for all general Deliveroo warehouse operations, like picking and packing orders, and receiving inventory, as well as, supervising the William's F1 merchandising department, in charge of packaging, returns, inventory, boosting my leadership and time management.

Bills Restaurant

Waitress - 09/2022 - 11/2022

Waitressing taught me the essential skills of teamwork and time management, having to work together in a fast-paced environment with numerous unpredictable factors and a catering to a diverse range of people, constantly improving my communication skills with both my team and customers

Greggs

Food Service Worker - 09/2021 - 12/2021

Food service is always an excellent challenge for time management, especially at a smaller counters where we receive in new stock daily and having it ready before opening, as well as re-stocking throughout the day with all customer service related responsibilities

Russell & Bromley Warehouse

Warehouse Worker - 06/2021 - 08/2021

Warehouse operations taught me to maintain work performance due to its repetitive nature becoming a challenge to the mind as well as pushing me to meet deadlines and push the boundaries of my previous performance, always improving

Pizza Hut

Food Service Worker - 02/2020 - 10/2020

When working in an assembly line, you are taught the fundamentals of teamwork and performance as each role must work to get the desired outcome and learning to handle work relationships to best meet this goal and mediate when they do not.
